See foot of page for accommodation details.

The Olympic Torch was carried along the Maelor Way in September 1991, from Overton to Gledrid, for the Barcelona Olympics in 1992. It was passed from the Mayor of Wrexham to the Mayor of Welshpool by the Scouts.

- p7 Teams of relay runners on the Maelor Way Inaugural Relay (6th April 91) completed the route in (first) 2 hrs 50 mins, (last) 4hrs 52 mins.
- p12 Definitive maps are now held at the Rights of Way Department, Transport Depot, Abbey Road South, Wrexham Industrial Estate. 01978 729762.
- p14 Diversion: Westwards: change last paragraph - ... mill leat and then turns left across the leat through a gate, turning right above Wolvesacre Mill [4]. In the second field turn right through the kissing gate then left and through another. Turn left up the lane.
Eastwards: replace first paragraph - At the foot of the hill turn right through the kissing gate and follow the bank of the old mill leat. Turn right, go through the next kissing gate then turn left through two fields above Wolvesacre Mill [4]. Take the gate on your left but continue in the same direction along the leat. Take the gate ahead and veer slightly left ... (read directions from 5th line)
- p16 'itinery' should be 'itinerary'.
- p20 lines 7 & 21: bridlegate now replaced by field gate.
- p21 'Henw' should be 'Henrwt'.
- p24 'Burwardstone' has more recently been attributed to 'Iscoed'.
- p25 'Middewich' should be 'Middlewich'.
- p27 The footpath at Whitewell church lies on a medieval track from Malpas.
- p30/31 WARNING: Hedgerow in 3rd field from New Hall Lane (shown as split) now completely removed, you must now cross the centre of this field.
- p36 The 17th century building was a barn and is now a house, Maesllwyn Court, not Maesllwyn House as stated. Line 26: there are now only 2 stiles.
- p37 stiles at Maesllwyn have been moved for a legal diversion.
- p38 2nd para: omit 'veer half-right', read 'go ahead'.
- p39 new bridge erected to left (page upright) of that shown.
- p58/59 at Plas-yn-coed use new stile in farmyard fence instead of: westwards—first gate; eastwards—gate on right by farmyard.
- p74 line 10: 'Sodyllt' should be 'Soddylt'—one of various spellings for the area.
- p76/77 There is a new stile and fence 2nd field opposite Pen y Bryn.
- p80 'River Ceiriog' should read 'Morlas Brook'. DIVERSION goes other side of converted barn to stile 20 metres from road junction.
- p83 line 24: 'east' should be 'west'.
- p87 Although Travers Morgan supplied the cross section of the viaduct, the final construction does not have a central strut: info supplied by a Clwyd CC Highways officer who walked through it.
- p93 2nd to last line: omit 'the river and 9 metres above'.
- p97 rosebay willowherb is in evidence on the route but the illustration is great willowherb, Epilobium angustifolium.
- p102 walk directions 2nd line: there are now 4 stiles before you turn up to the gate.
- p118 South Cheshire Way is marked SCW near the waymark. The guide gives OS map numbers and meets the Mow Cop Trail at Mow Cop.
- p122 Wrexham County Borough Council at Rights of Way Department, Transport Depot, Abbey Road South, Wrexham Industrial Estate now deals with footpaths: Tel. 01978 729762, email: rightsofway@wrexham.gov.uk.
