

Buses run to Overton and Penley from Wrexham. Travel enquiries: 01978 266166

See foot of page for accommodation details.

- p7 Teams of relay runners on the Maelor Way Inaugural Relay (6th April 91) completed the route in (first) 2 hrs 50 mins, (last) 4hrs 52 mins.
- p12 Definitive maps are now held at Crown Buildings, Chester St, Wrexham. 01978 292057.
- p16 'itinery' should be 'itinerary'.
- p20 lines 7 & 21: bridlegate now replaced by field gate.
- p21 'Henw' should be 'Henrst'.
- p24 'Burwardstone' has more recently been attributed to 'Iscoed'.
- p25 'Middewich' should be 'Middlewich'.
- p27 The footpath at Whitewell church lies on a medieval track from Malpas.
- p30/31 WARNING: Hedgerow in 3rd field from New Hall Lane (shown as split) now completely removed, you must now cross the centre of this field.
- p36 The 17th century building was a barn and is now a house, Maesllwyn Court, not Maesllwyn House as stated. Line 26: there are now only 2 stiles.
- p37 stiles at Maesllwyn have been moved for a legal diversion.
- p38 2nd para: omit 'veer half-right', read 'go ahead'.
- p39 new bridge erected to left (page upright) of that shown.
- p58/59 at Plas-yn-coed use new stile in farmyard fence instead of: westwards—first gate; eastwards—gate on right by farmyard.
The bridge over Shell Brook was missing as at 13.12.07. Check with Shropshire CC 01743 255061.
Use directions shown below (p60 & p70)
- p70 Eastwards: page 70 last line: At the T-junction by a timber-framed farm (Sodylt Old Hall) leave the MW and turn right. At the next junction fork left. At the main road turn left. In less than a kilometre, beyond the bridge (over Shell Brook on Barton's Bridge), take the footpath track on the left. At the river rejoin the MW. Ignore first line of Eastwards route direction on page 60.
- p74 line 10: 'Sodyllt' should be 'Sodylt'—one of various spellings for the area.
- p76/77 There is a new stile and fence 2nd field opposite Pen y Bryn.
- p80 'River Ceiriog' should read 'Morlas Brook'. DIVERSION goes other side of converted barn to stile 20 metres from road junction.
- p83 line 24: 'east' should be 'west'.
- p87 Although Travers Morgan supplied the cross section of the viaduct, the final construction does not have a central strut: info supplied by a Clwyd CC Highways officer who walked through it.
- p93 2nd to last line: omit 'the river and 9 metres above'.
- p97 rosebay willowherb is in evidence on the route but the illustration is great willowherb, Epilobium angustifolium.
- p102 walk directions 2nd line: there are now 4 stiles before you turn up to the gate.
- p118 South Cheshire Way is marked SCW near the waymark. The guide gives OS map numbers and meets the Mow Cop Trail at Mow Cop.
- p122 Wrexham County Borough Council at Crown Buildings, Chester Street, Wrexham now deals with footpaths: Tel. 01978 292057, email: rightsofway@wrexham.gov.uk. For Cheshire phone 01606 541802/3 or email prow@cheshire.gov.uk. For Shropshire phone 01743 255061.
- p123 Tourist Information, Wrexham is now 01978 292015.
