

THE CONSTITUTION - SECTION 3

3. GETTING INFORMATION AND GETTING INVOLVED

3.1 Getting Information

3.1.1 Information Available to Members of the Public

- (a) When Meetings of the Member Bodies Will Take Place
A programme of meetings is available by contacting the Council direct or via the website.
- (b) Forward Work Programme
From the Forward Work Programme, see what decisions will be taken by the Executive Board or Council and what issues the Scrutiny Committees will be considering and when these matters will be discussed.
- (c) Information Available Prior to a Meeting
Three days before a meeting, the agenda, any report likely to be discussed and background papers to that report shall be available for inspection at the offices of the Council and on the website. If an item is added to the agenda later, the revised agenda will be open to inspection from the time when the item is added to the agenda and any report will be made available to the public as soon as it is available and sent to Councillors.
- (d) Information Available at a Meeting
The Council will make available to the public present at a meeting a reasonable number of copies of the Agenda and of the Reports for the meeting (save during any part of the meeting to which the public are excluded).
- (e) Information Available After a Meeting
For a period of six years the agenda, reports and the minutes of the meeting shall be available for inspection. The background papers shall remain open for inspection for a period of four years. Webcasts of Council meetings, where applicable, will be archived for public access for 6 months following the meeting.

Council's Accounts

Inspect the Council's accounts and make their views known to the external auditor (sections 29 and 30 Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004). Under the Accounts and Audit (Wales) Regulations 2014, the accounts will be available for public inspection for twenty (20) working days after the date appointed by the auditor.

Information which is confidential or exempt (as defined in paragraphs 14.10.3 and 14.10.4) will not be disclosed to members of the public at any time.

3.1.2 Information Available to Members of the Council

- (a) Members can see any information, which is available to a member of the public.

- (b) In addition, a Member may see any information which he or she needs to know in order to fulfil his or her role as a Member of the Council (otherwise known as “need to know”). A Member will not make public information which is confidential or exempt (as defined in Section 14) without the consent of the Council or divulge information given in confidence to anyone other than a Councillor or person(s) or organisation(s) entitled to know it.

3.1.3 Members of a Scrutiny Committee

A Member of a Scrutiny Committee may also see any document containing material relating to:

- (a) any business transacted at or meeting of the Executive Board;
- (b) any decision taken by an individual Member of the Executive Board.

A Scrutiny Committee Member is not entitled to:

- (a) any document in draft form;
- (b) any part of a document which contains confidential or exempt information unless that information is relevant to an action or decision they are reviewing or scrutinising or intending to scrutinise and is included in the Committee’s Forward Work Programme.

3.1.4 Information Available to Officers

The Monitoring Officer, the Section 151 Officer and the Head of Paid Service may see any papers or records held by any part of the Council or its Officers. Other Officers may see any information held by the Council provided:

- (a) they need to see the information to do their job; and
- (b) that information is processed lawfully in accordance with the Data Protection legislation.

3.2 Getting Involved
