CRIMINAL RECORDS & EMPLOYMENT

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 makes it illegal for employers to discriminate against ex-offenders if they take into account a conviction or caution that would not have been disclosed under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended 2013). The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are “protected” and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account when making employment decisions. Where a Standard or Enhanced certificate can legally be requested, this is where the position is one that is listed in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975; you must not withhold information that would be disclosed on your DBS certificate. Where the job you are applying for requires a standard or enhanced disclosure, this will be highlighted in your job pack. You will be required to provide further details and any offer of employment will be subject to a Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service.
